Election Call

Under normal circumstances we hold our Annual Parochial Church Meeting (APCM) at the end of April. This is an occasion where we review the past twelve months; hear reports; ask questions; and look to the months ahead. This year, however, this is postponed until Tuesday 20th October at 7.00pm – in Church and also via Zoom.

Both our Churchwardens, Patricia Stableford and Paul Medforth, are stepping down

Sadly, both of our brilliant current Churchwardens, Paul Medforth and Patricia Stableford, will be standing down at this meeting, so the APCM will provide an opportunity to say thank you to them for their sterling service both before and during the current extraordinary period. Furthermore, of course, we will need to elect two new Churchwardens. I am delighted that Sian Lockwood and Sarah Martin have agreed to stand for election. Forms for any further nominations will be available at the back of Church and also online – follow the Annual Meeting hotlink from the Home Page at www.stpetersharrogate.org.uk.

This year we also have space to elect six new members of the Parochial Church Council (PCC) and four Deanery Synod Representatives (who also serve on the PCC). Nomination forms and a 'PCC Tonight' booklet outlining the purpose and remit of PCCs will be available at the back of Church and also online – again, follow the Annual Meeting link. To stand for election as a Churchwarden, a member of the PCC, or a Deanery Synod Representative, you must have been a member of the St Peter's Electoral Roll for at least the preceding six months. The best way to find out what's really involved is to ask someone who's been there before, so do feel free to talk with any current members of the Council (listed on the Annual Meeting web page) or to one of the Clergy.

St Peter's Annual Animal Service

Our annual Animal Service is at 4:15 pm on Sunday 4th October. If you are bringing an animal, it must be under control at all times – either on a lead or in a carrier – and stay with you at your table. Or, if you prefer, just bring a photo of your pet or a toy animal. To check availability and to book a place please contact our Curate, Chris Clayton, (07407 258733 or chris.clayton@leeds.anglican.org).

St Paul's Letters part 2 - a Bibletrack seminar by Dr Chris Tilling

Chris Tilling is a New Testament scholar and tutor in New Testament Studies at St. Mellitus College in London. He is the author of a popular theology blog site entitled Chrisendom. This seminar is at Mowbray Community Church on Saturday 10th October, starting at 10:00 am with a DVD presentation by Chris Tilling, followed by a facilitated discussion. Tickets cost £4 for the morning, a reduced rate as no breakfast or mid-morning refreshments will be available.

Sanctuary meet again at the Valley Gardens

In their first get together since lockdown, nine members of our youth group, Sanctuary, played crazy golf in the park! Congratulations to Alexander, Finlay and Will for all getting a hole in one at the same hole one after another. Amazing!

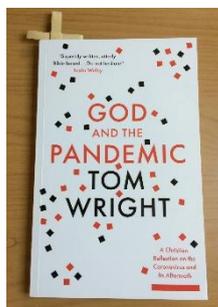

Licensing of Catharine Davies last Sunday

St Peter's Church was as full as the current restrictions allow for the admission and licensing of Catharine as a Licensed Lay Minister (Reader). After a welcome and prayers from the Bishop, Bob Mathews was commissioned as Assistant Warden of Readers for the Ripon Episcopal Area. Catharine then had to make a formal declaration of assent and obedience. The Epistle was read by Sarah Martin, Reader at St Peter's, and the Gospel by Stewart Davies, also a Reader and Catharine's husband. The sermon was given by Archdeacon Jonathan Gough, who then presented Catharine to the Bishop to be admitted to the office of Reader. Catharine received a Bible and her licence from the Bishop and was vested in a blue scarf by Stewart. She was congratulated with long and loud applause from everyone! The Bishop asked the congregation to uphold and encourage her in her ministry and to continue to pray for her – and with God's help we will.

Catharine writes, " I want to thank people for their support – in prayers or presence – which I felt as a wave willing me on, for which I am and will continue to be so very thankful for. Whilst the official licensing is the 'rubber stamp', it is the authentic and tangible sense of being among and supported by the people of St Peter's that is the ongoing blessing in this ministry. It reminds me I am here to serve with gratitude, but one amongst many 'ministers'."

The Collect for the Fourth Sunday of Creationtide

God, the giver of life, whose Holy Spirit wells up within your Church:
by the Spirit's gifts equip us to live the gospel of Christ and make us eager to do your will,
that we may share with the whole creation the joys of eternal life;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Love never fails. In time of crisis, love unites us all

This autumn, Christian Aid wants us to reach out to our neighbours near and far, and show them that in times of crisis, love never fails. When crisis arrived on our doorsteps this year, neighbourly love helped us through. This autumn, through our Harvest Services, we can harness the power of neighbourly love and make a life-changing difference to vulnerable communities around the world.

Angela's daughter, Ariana, harvesting their new crop of cocoa pods on their farm

In Nicaragua, climate change threatens Angela's livelihood. Because of the climate crisis, her coffee beans don't ripen properly and she's losing a lot of her crop. But, with support from Christian Aid's partner, Soppexcca, Angela and her community are shifting from production of coffee to climate-resistant cocoa. At a time of crisis, her community are supporting each other, coming together as a cooperative to share knowledge and protect their livelihoods.

St Peter's Church will be celebrating the work of Christian Aid at our Harvest services next Sunday 4th October. If you would like to make a donation please do so at <https://www.christianaid.org.uk/appeals/key-appeals/global-neighbours-autumn-appeal>.

Fresh from the farm every week!

FREE RANGE EGGS

Fresh, large Ian Taylor eggs available from Hannah Beck after any service on Sundays.
