2019 – Ancient History!

Normally, in preparation for our Annual Meeting, The Annual Review would remind us of all that's been going on in various aspects of St Peter's life over the preceding year. This year, however, news from 2019 seems like ancient history, so, instead of the usual Annual Review this year, the Vicar's verbal report at the APCM will include some reflections on the past 18 months. Do please tell me if you think there is something in particular you think I should include.

One of the many concerts held at St Peter's in 2019 – this one was to celebrate the 70th birthday of Phil Wilby

In the period up to lockdown we were, as has of course been the case for a long time, buzzing with activity every day. This was also a period of sustained numerical growth in our Sunday and weekday congregations. Since lockdown, of course, much has changed. We have had to adapt quickly and decide where to focus our limited resources. Care and prayer have been two big themes and there have been some stunning stories of how St Peter's has grown in these respects – alongside others where we have not adapted as quickly or as well as we would have wanted.

Do join us for the Annual Meeting on Tuesday 20th October at 7:00 pm – in person or via Zoom (further details, along with nomination forms for elected posts are available on the Church website). As we reflect together there will be causes for gratitude as well as lament, and as we look to the future always causes for hope ...

Help needed to make poppies for Remembrance Sunday

Frances Roxby-Proud is aiming to decorate our Church with knitted poppies to mark Remembrance Sunday. All you need is some red double-knitting wool, a pair of 4mm needles and a small black button. There is a free pattern from Cirencester Parish Church to download, in 2017 they teamed up with the Royal British Legion to decorate their church with 17,000 knitted poppies. Please speak to Frances for further details.

Mission Possible UK (MPUK)– Autumn Newsletter

MPUK is a small Christian mission society working in Africa and Eastern Europe that St Peter's supports. During lockdown they have not only been able to provide emergency relief in the form of food and hygiene packs, and a job retention scheme, but have also supported projects that have given work to unemployed casual workers and progressed various Christian literature projects. Visit mpuk.org to read their Autumn Newsletter and watch their video about the COVID-19 relief work they have been doing.

Art in the Cathedral: spectacular stitching and a startling sculpture

Jacqui Parkinson's exhibition Threads Through Revelation was a huge hit at the Ripon Cathedral in 2018. She said, "After the enormous effort of 14 panels in Threads through Revelation, I decided to do a smaller project. It still did take me 18 months and over a million stitches! The three panels of Tree of Life tell the stories of Adam and Eve's fall, in the first pages of the Bible; the Crucifixion; and the promise of a new heaven and earth in the last pages of the Bible." The textile panels and a sculpture will be exhibited until 1st November and entrance is free.

The Parish Walks raised £1870 for the food ministry at St Peter's and once Gift Aid is added the total will be £2,000. A huge thank you to everyone!

Harvest Flowers by St Peter's Flower Team

Many thanks to Sue Heapy for sending these pictures of the displays created by our Flower Team for the Harvest services. Don't forget you can mark a special occasion, such as an anniversary or birthday, by making a donation towards the flowers in Church. Please speak to Sue for further details (07540 355305). The St Peter's Flower Team - Alice Thompson, Beth Grindrod, Claire Ribbon, Jennifer Cornish, Maureen Hague, Veronica Ace and Sue Heapy – all work hard throughout the year, so thank you, ladies, your work is very much appreciated!

The Collect for the Eighteenth Sunday after Trinity

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us your gift of faith that, forsaking what lies behind and reaching out to that which is before, we may run the way of your commandments and win the crown of everlasting joy; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

God, our judge and saviour, teach us to be open to your truth and to trust in your love, that we may live each day with confidence in the salvation which is given through Jesus Christ our Lord.
