Introduction

We hold and process various categories of personal information for a number of reasons. We collect this data either from you or from third parties who provide it to us. For more details of the information we process please use the links below:

- Information collected through the BUGB Annual Return Form \(paper and online forms\) which, where the context permits, should be read to include EMBA in the definition of "we" and "us".
- Information provided in respect of the work of the BU Ministries Team which, where the context permits, should be read to include EMBA in the definition of "we" and "us".
- Information processed in relation to safeguarding matters which, where the context permits, should be read to include EMBA in the definition of "we" and "us".
- Information collected through our website (see EMBA Website Privacy policy on our website here: <https://embaptists.org.uk/about-us/structure-governance/emba-policies/>)

Information about you

We may collect information about you in the following ways:

Information which you give us

We collect information about you when you fill in one of our forms and when you communicate with us in person, in writing, by email or phone. This can include (but is not limited to) your full name, address, email address, phone number(s), details of your church connections and your bank details. If you are applying for Ministerial Accreditation/Recognition or placement/settlement in one of the churches in membership with us, we shall work with the Ministries Team at BUGB and additional information will be collected as set out in the above link.

If you apply for a job with us or work for us in a paid or voluntary role additional information will also be collected. Information in this regard will be provided to relevant individuals and may also be requested by them using the contact details above.

Information we collect about you

Normally we will only process information which you have provided to us directly; through the person who completes your church’s Annual Return Form or in relation to applications to us for grants or loans.

We may, however, obtain additional information about you from relevant third parties in connection with your application for Ministerial Accreditation/Recognition/Settlement; any non-ministerial position you may hold within an EMBA church; if you apply to work for EMBA in a paid or voluntary role or where a safeguarding concern has been raised with us.

When providing support to churches in membership with us we may access and process personal data in relation to individuals connected to those churches from the church’s own website, Companies House Register or the Charity Commission Register. This is public information held in the EEA.

More details about what we collect can be found using the relevant links above.

Why we collect and process this information

In this section we list the different purposes for which we collect and use your personal information, as well as the legal grounds under the Data Protection Act 2018 and the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) on which we rely to justify such data processing.

Where we keep your personal data

All your personal information covered by this notice will be stored in the UK. We have appropriate security measures in place to reduce the risk of personal data being accidentally lost or accessed in an unauthorised way. We will not transfer your information outside the European Union unless we are permitted to do so by law and we will inform you about such transfer before it is done.

Please note that our regular mailings are facilitated through 'Church Suite' You have the right to unsubscribe from such mailings at any time.

Retention of data

We will keep the personal information covered by this policy for the periods of time specified in our Data Retention Schedule and at the end of the applicable retention periods we will safely and securely delete it.

Your rights in relation to your data

You have a number of rights under data protection law. These include:

- The right to access your personal data and to obtain certain information about it;
- The right to rectify the data if it is inaccurate;
- In some circumstances, such as when the data is no longer required or if the use of the data has no legal justification, the right to have that data erased;
- In limited circumstances, the right to object to our handling of the data;
- In limited circumstances, the right to restrict the handling of your data;
- The right to obtain a copy of your data in a commonly used electronic form if the data is processed by automated means and the processing is based on your consent or contractual necessity.

More details about how these rights apply can be found in our Data Protection Policy here:

<https://embaptists.org.uk/about-us/structure-governance/emba-policies/>

You also have the right to withdraw your consent at any time when we rely on consent as a legal ground to justify our handling of your personal data. This would not affect the lawfulness of anything done before consent is withdrawn but it would stop us from continuing to use the relevant information.

You can exercise your rights or obtain more information about them by contacting our Data Protection Officer.

Complaints to the Information Commissioner

You have a right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Officer (ICO) about the way in which we collect and handle your personal data. Complaints to the ICO can be made on the ICO's website.

Changes to our Privacy Notices

We may change our privacy notices from time to time in which case we will upload the updated notice(s) to our website. It is advisable to refer to the privacy notice(s) regularly, particularly before sharing information about yourself which you consider to be sensitive.
