The Manchester Diocesan Board of Education

Chair: The Bishop of Middleton

Key Officer: Director of Education

The Board has responsibility for all matters concerned with the Diocese's relationship with schools and colleges, both Further and Higher Education; and the church's work with children and young people. The Board meets three times a year.

Functions:

- (i) to promote or assist in the promotion of education in the diocese, being education which is consistent with the faith and practice of the Church of England;
- (ii) to promote or assist in the promotion of religious education and religious worship in schools in the diocese;
- (iii) to promote or assist in the promotion of church schools in the diocese and to advise the governors of such schools and trustees of church educational endowments and any other body or person concerned on any matter affecting church schools in the diocese;
- (iv) to promote cooperation between the Board and bodies or persons concerned in any respect with education in the diocese;
- (v) the functions assigned to the Board by this Diocesan Board of Education Measure; and
- (vi) such other functions not contrary to the Measure as are assigned to the Board by the diocesan synod, other than functions relating to church schools or church educational endowments.

Manchester diocese has a very significant stake in education, with more children in church schools than any other diocese. There are major challenges for the church in relation to children and young people and the Board is crucial in developing strategies to meet those challenges. It needs members with a passion for education and a passion for the Gospel, committed to doing right for the children and young people of the diocese.
