

Becoming a Local Missioner

Who can be a Local Missioner?

Local Missioners will be people who love God and have a sense of calling to this ministry. They will be people who love others and are fruitful in how they live out their faith. They will be people who are wise, open to new learning and have the potential to adapt and work with others.

What training is required?

- Local Missioner Training (this may be a short course or training "on the job" in the parish)
- C1 Safeguarding Training

What is the application process?

If you feel you may have a calling to this ministry, please speak with your parish priest who will be able to help you discern if this is the right ministry for you.

Once you have met with your incumbent, they will ask you to complete a nomination form, ask for references and consult the PCC.

When you have completed the training and Safeguarding requirements (including a DBS check) you will be able to be commissioned as a Local Worship Leader and will have a Working Agreement and regular reviews with your incumbent.

Inspiring each Generation

Local Missioner

Local Missioners are commissioned to work as part of a team reaching out to people in the wider community in all sorts of ways.

They may be involved in Intergenerational Mission; Pioneer Mission; Chaplaincy; and Everyday Faith.

They are supervised by the parish priest and work alongside other lay and ordained ministers.
