

Hearing God's call 1

Calling looks and feels different from person to person and at different times in our life.

"One of the most important things for me in understanding my call was the opportunity to give things a go"

Richard Kelley

"One of the things that helped me understand my call was spending time reflecting and writing in my journal all my questions, doubts and hopes and checking where this sense of calling was coming from"

Farhad Chermahini

"My call is all about where I live and what I do".

Anita Simmonds

- Have you ever heard God's call?
- What helps you to understand how God calls you?

Something to try

What has your journey through life so far looked like?

- Draw or represent it in any way that works for you – words, pictures, a map...
- Then look at it and reflect on when you have felt God's call – either at the time or in hindsight.

You might like to do this on your own, with friends or family (of all ages) or with members of your church.

E.g. you might do this with a timeline and you could include things like – your starting point, significant points, places and people, moments when God felt particularly absent or present.

"God's Holy Spirit showed me step-by-step what my life should be"

Yvonne Roufett
