Welcome from the Director of Education

Welcome to our CPD offer for 2022-23. Following your feedback and the enormous success of our online opportunities, we will continue to develop and offer our online training as well as reintroducing our excellent face to face training, either centrally at Flourish House or as a bespoke offer to Multi Academy Trusts (MATs) and schools. We hope that our blended approach to training will enable us to meet your professional development, MAT and school needs as well as minimising additional costs, such as travel.

Our aim, as always, is to SERVE (Support, Encourage, Resource, Value, Equip) you with the highest quality provision, designed to meet the needs that you raise with us as well as inspiring new thinking. We love feedback and we enjoy creating, with you, bespoke training for schools and school groupings. Please do contact us if you would like to discuss this. This year we are also able to offer meeting space at Flourish House if you need a venue that is away from your normal workspace and offers various size meeting rooms plus a peaceful ambience for thinking and reflection. Please do look out for links to the latest round of NPQs and other courses that are being offered through Church of England education partners.

I look forward to meeting you at training events online or here at Flourish House over the course of the year. Thank you for all that you do to keep yourself, your schools and teams refreshed with high quality training and development.
