CPD Training Autumn 2021

Services to support the distinctive needs of Church of England schools and academies

Welcome from the Director of Education

Dear colleagues,

Welcome to our CPD offer for 2021-22. Thank you for such positive engagement last year and, following on from the enormous success of our online opportunities, we are building on this as well as looking to reintroduce some of our excellent face to face training. Your feedback has been incredibly helpful as well as overwhelmingly appreciative, we have used this to tailor make this year's programme into our best ever.

Our aim, as always, is to SERVE (Support, Encourage, Resource, Value, Equip) you with the highest quality provision, designed to meet the needs that you raise with us as well as inspiring new thinking too.

We love feedback and we enjoy creating, with you, bespoke training for schools and school groupings. Please do contact us if you would like to discuss this.

As we start the academic year, we are delighted that, once again, the Church of England Education Office (CEEO) is a delivery partner for the National Professional Qualifications (NPQs). This time the CEEO is involved across the whole suite of NPQs, and we will be working in partnership with Bath and Wells MAT, Palladian MAT and neighbouring dioceses to deliver these national training courses. You can register for these, many of which are funded, through the link: www.cefel.org.uk/npq

I look forward, along with the great team here at the Diocesan Education Department, to meeting you at our training and development events throughout the academic year.
