Gerard Segher's The Denial of Saint Peter

Jesus predicted that Peter would deny knowledge of him, stating that Peter would disown him before the rooster crowed the next morning. The gospels tell us that Peter did indeed deny Jesus 3 times and when he realised what he did he cried. This is known as the repentance of Peter. In this famous Easter painting we can see Peter denying Christ to those that ask him. Created between 1620-1625 it is housed in the North Carolina Museum of Art

Caravaggio's Denial of Saint Peter

The Denial of Saint Peter is a painting finished around 1610 by the Italian painter Caravaggio. It depicts Peter denying Jesus after Jesus was arrested. The painting is housed in the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City.
