NEW COURSE 2021-22

Certificate for
Lay Worship Leaders

*O worship the Lord
in the beauty of holiness*

Certificate for Lay Worship Leaders

A new one-year course beginning in September 2021

The aim of this course is to discover, develop and release the talents that are already there in the local church. The course is particularly suitable for those who might:

- Wish to deepen their understanding of worship
- Already be involved in leading worship in their local church
- Sense a calling to a ministry of leading others in worship
- Wish to improve their practical worship leading skills

The course can be a useful starting point for some or a timely refresher for others. It is also ideal for church musicians who are regularly involved in choosing music for worship or leading parts of a service from a worship group.

The course covers four key areas

1. Theology and history of worship, liturgy and music
2. Leadership skills for putting together services, building a worship team and enabling a congregation in worship
3. Practical skills for facilitating liturgy, music, and prayer, use of audio-visuals and other expressive arts
4. Exploration of different church traditions and different worship styles, including Fresh Expressions and worship in a mission context

It is based on the Worship 4 Today Course by Helen Bent and Liz Tipple, (published by CHP, 2013/14). This course originated in Sheffield Diocese.

A blended learning approach

The course will combine eleven Monday evening sessions from 7pm – 9pm on Zoom with three Saturday mornings 10am – 2pm and one full Saturday workshop day for face-to-face practical sessions. This avoids driving long distances on dark winter evenings. Saturday sessions will use different churches spread evenly across the diocese to provide experience of planning and delivering worship in different contexts.

Course Leader

The course will be overseen by Revd Helen Bent, Associate Priest in the Walgrave Benefice and former Head of Ministerial Training for the RSCM. Helen is a respected author who brings a love of church history and liturgy together with a wealth of experience in training worship leaders, ordained and lay, and their musicians across the full breadth of tradition and style. She describes herself as a reflective practitioner and life-long learner with a passion for mission and church growth as well as a passion for worship.

Taster Session

If you would like to know more about the course, there will be an introductory Taster Session on Monday 14 June at 7 pm on Zoom.

Please contact Lesley-Anne Marriott for a Zoom invitation.

Pre-Course Introductory Session

This will be an opportunity to meet together face to face and begin to get to know the others on the course. A date and venue will be arranged nearer the start of the course.

How much time is involved?

Apart from the actual session time

- There are some preparatory tasks to be done in your own time. These include: Bible study, service planning; worship audits; church visits
- Personal Project - an opportunity to explore an area of worship of personal interest, presented in an appropriate manner for the topic
- Portfolio - to aid reflection on the learning experience. This has a carefully structured format. It can be a physical copy or electronic.

Applicants will require:

- the full support of their incumbent and PCC
- an up-to-date DBS Check
- attendance at a diocesan safeguarding training session during the certificate year

Course Cost:

- £110-00 per application paid by the PCC

At the end of the course:

- Successful candidates will be presented with a Lay Worship Leader's Certificate by the Bishop
