HEADTEACHERS CONFERENCE 2021 AUTUMN TERM – REIMAGINING AND REINVIGORATING EDUCATION IN A POST-PANDEMIC FUTURE

Date, Time and Venue	Description	Suitability	Facilitator
Thursday 25 Nov. 2021 9:15am. – 3:00pm Via Zoom	Reimagining and Reinvigorating Education in a Post-Pandemic Future The keynote address will be given by Professor Dame Alison Peacock, CEO of the Chartered College of Teaching, sharing the vision and mission of the Chartered College of Teaching, and addressing the main conference theme about ‘Reimagining and reinvigorating education in a post-pandemic future’. Lorna Fitzjohn, Regional Director, East of England, will share Ofsted’s expectations of post-pandemic education, best practice which has been recently documented and her own aspirations for our national education system. Dr Margaret James, National Director of SIAMS, will set out the nature and purpose of SIAMS under her leadership, and what this will mean for Church of England schools in practical terms. Tim Oates CBE, Director of Assessment Research and Development at Cambridge Assessment, will share thoughts on enabling children to succeed in education through high quality contact time, social learning, quiet reflection, and self-study. In addition, from our own DBE Education Team, Andy Lakatos, DBE Schools’ Effectiveness Adviser, and Jane Lewis, Assistant Diocesan Director of Education, are very mindful that you will want to ensure your SEF accurately reflects your school and your development plans show real clarity in your intended outcomes, with Ofsted and SIAMS inspections resuming from the autumn term onwards; Jane and Andy will share their thoughts on SEFs and SDPs which we trust you will find helpful.	Headteachers, SLT Members, Chairs of Governors	Peter Cantley Professor Dame Alison Peacock Lorna Fitzjohn Dr Margaret James Tim Oates CBE Andy Lakatos Jane Lewis

Thursday 24 Mar. 2022 9:15am. – 3:00pm Via Zoom	Every Dimension of Every Life Matters Our spring term conference will include a main presentation from Dr Ruth Valerio about ‘The Earth’s Life Matters’, addressing important themes about: the environment, climate change, courageous advocacy and ways to help children and young people look after God’s world and love their global neighbours. Allana Gay will speak about ‘Black Lives Matter’, addressing important BAME, UKME and decolonising the curriculum themes. Lat Blaylock from RE Today, will address the theme of ‘Religious Lives Matter’, illustrating the importance of religion in our world, with 80% of all people on our planet practising some form of religion today, and will consider RE teaching and curriculum design, referencing resources and training courses that would be helpful for teachers, especially for colleagues in the primary school sector. Dr Anne Lumb will present on ‘Spiritual Lives Matter’, considering afresh the spiritual dimension of pupils’ lives and how Church of England school leaders can most effectively support children’s and young people’s spiritual development.	Headteachers, SLT Members, Chairs of Governors	Peter Cantley Dr Ruth Valerio Allana Gay Lat Blaylock Dr Anne Lumb

HEADTEACHERS CONFERENCE 2021 AUTUMN TERM – REIMAGINING AND REINVIGORATING EDUCATION IN A POST-PANDEMIC FUTURE

Thursday 16 Jun. 2022 9:15am. – 3:00pm Via Zoom	Happiness, Wellbeing, Resilience, Growing and Flourishing Dr Bill Mitchell, a highly experienced clinical psychologist whose clinical work is about rebuilding resilience in people who have been temporarily ‘de-railed’ by complex life events, will address the theme of ‘Wellbeing and resilience’, encompassing: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● identifying personal pressures, ● recognising early signs of not coping, ● the physiology of mental fitness ● having helpful conversations. Richard Crellin will speak about the Children’s Society ‘Good Childhood’ report, which is a vital tool for measuring the happiness and well-being of the children and young people; it is the only report of its kind that actually asks the questions directly to children and young people, rather than to their parents and carers, and is used to inform government policy. Ian Soars will share with us the support that Fegans (a leading UK charity supporting vulnerable children and families) gives and why it is important. Chris Whittington will lead experiential workshop you will be introduced to meditation in the Christian tradition as a simple but radically effective path to greater peace, wellbeing and community. Through a series of short talks and periods of practice, we’ll explore: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● forming a new relationship with life with all that offers us and throws at us ● establishing peace in ourselves so we can be places of peace for those around us ● taking what we have encountered out into our daily life and places of work.
