

HANDOUT 3

Situation You have new neighbours.	Situation At the toddler group, parents are discussing whether or not to have their children christened.
Situation The local council proposes changes which will disadvantage a vulnerable group in your community.	Situation Your church is running a course for enquirers and you want to invite someone you know.
Situation A friend is having mental health issues and is becoming reclusive.	Situation Jehovah's Witnesses knock on your door.
Situation A local teenage girl asks you to buy cigarettes for her in the local shop.	Situation You regularly pass a homeless person sitting in a doorway on the street.
Situation You speak to someone at work in a way you regret.	Situation A colleague asks you to join him/her in putting in a false expenses claim.
Situation Local children and young people knock on your door at Halloween.	Situation A friend says that they can't forgive someone.
Situation	Situation