1. What is personal data?
Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in our possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679 (the “GDPR”) and the Data Protection Act 2018, (the “DPA 2018”).

2. Who are we?
Diocesan Trustees (Oxford)Ltd [DT(O)L] is the data controller (contact details below). This means it decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?
DT(O)L complies with its obligations under the GDPR and DPA 2018 by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.
We use your personal data for the preparation of payments and issue of annual statements.

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?
Processing is carried out under different legal bases depending on the circumstances:

   - Legitimate Interest
   - Processing of personal data is undertaken to enable payments to be made and annual statements issued

5. Sharing your personal data
Your personal data will be treated as confidential and will be shared when necessary with the Oxford Diocesan Board of Finance staff to make payments.

We will seek your consent before any further sharing of your personal data.

6. How long do we keep your personal data?
We keep data in accordance with the guidance set out in the guide “Save or delete – The Care of Diocesan Records” and is available from the Church of England website: https://www.churchofengland.org/more/libraries-and-archives/records-management-guides.

We keep your personal details for as long as long as a Trust is open. After a trust is closed or has been handed to parish trustees, paper files are weeded and scanned. Paper files are retained for 6 financial years after closure or transfer, after which the start & end paper documentation is transferred to the Oxfordshire History Centre other paper records are shredded. Scanned files and associated e-mails are kept indefinitely.

7. Your rights and your personal data
Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR or DPA 2018, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data:

   - The right to request a copy of your personal data which the DT(O)L holds about you;
