Privacy Notice for the Staff of Yellow Braces Camp

1. Your personal data – what is it?
Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in our possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679 (the “GDPR”) and the Data Protection Act 2018, (the “DPA 2018”)

2. Who are we?
Oxford Diocesan Board of Finance (ODBF) is the data controller (contact details below). This means it decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?
ODBF complies with its obligations under the GDPR and DPA 2018 by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

The information we collect comes from your Staff Application Form: name, phone number, email address, address, gender, date of birth, church and parish, your experience, references, and data needed to complete DBS checks.

We use Staff personal data, as collected on Staff Application forms, to recruit camp staff and communicate with staff members.

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?
We process the information you provide on the basis of ‘legitimate interest’, to process your application for a role at The Oxford Diocese Yellow Braces Camp, to communicate between staff members to conduct your duties in relation to Yellow Braces, and for emergency purposes.

5. Sharing your personal data
Your personal data will be treated as confidential and will be shared when necessary with other staff attending the Yellow Braces Camp, this may include sharing with medical professionals in case of an emergency.

6. How long do we keep your personal data?
In accordance with the Church of England’s current safeguarding guidelines, personal data connected with records of children’s activity, including any risk assessment, will be kept for 50 years after the activity ends.

7. Your rights and your personal data
Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR or DPA 2018, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data:

- The right to request a copy of your personal data which ODBF holds about you;
- The right to request that ODBF corrects any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date;
- The right to request your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for ODBF to retain such data;
- The right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time;
- The right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing;
- The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office.

8. Further processing
If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Data Protection Notice, then we will provide you with a new notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your prior consent to the new processing.

9. Contact Details
