

Children's jokes from across the

There are more than 60,000 children in our schools – that's a lot – and all of you are very special. Thank you for all the good things you have done and said in this very hard year – for every smile and kind word and good deed. Thank you for all your prayers. God has heard every single one.

Lots of people are very sad this Christmas time. But even when we are sad, it's important to remember good times and those we love. It's good to laugh and smile and look forward to better times ahead.

Thank you for all the jokes you sent me this Christmas. They made me laugh. A lot. This little book contains all of the jokes you sent in. You can share it with your friends and family. I hope it makes everyone smile and remember the joy and the good times in this Christmas season.

Have a really happy and wonderful Christmas. Even if we are sad, we can be happy as well – and smile. God bless you and God bless your family this Christmas time.

Stan Oxford.
