We have more parishes and churches than any other diocese in the Church of England.

There are 812 churches in 29 deaneries serving a population of 2.4m people and 283 Church of England schools serving 60,000 pupils.

Together, we work with God and with others for the common good in every place in one of the great crossroads of the world.
What are we called to be?

A more Christ-like Church for the sake of God’s world

contemplative  compassionate  courageous
Emerging into a post-COVID world

...listening to God, to God’s world, to God’s church
The climate and biodiversity crises

contemplative | compassionate | courageous
The crisis in mental, emotional and spiritual health
Growing inequality
A year of listening

- North Bucks Pilgrimage
- Deanery Tour
- Clergy Conference
Living in Love and Faith
contemplative | compassionate | courageous
LAMBETH CONFERENCE
God’s Church for God’s world
Locked down, open-hearted
Living life in all its fullness

contemplative | compassionate | courageous
Therefore prepare your minds for action; discipline yourselves; set all your hope on the grace that Jesus Christ will bring you when he is revealed.

Like obedient children, do not be conformed to the desires that you formerly had in ignorance. Instead, as he who called you is holy, be holy yourselves in all your conduct; for it is written, “You shall be holy, for I am holy.”
Five priority areas

Environmental action
Formation & discipleship
Growing new congregations
Schools, children and young people
Addressing poverty and inequality.

contemplative | compassionate | courageous