4. The lawful basis for using your information

We collect and use personal data as explained below.

- Legitimate interest – we may need to process your information to undertake safeguarding tasks, including doing all that we reasonably can to ensure that no-one is at risk of harm during Church of England activities.

Legitimate Interest Assessment

We have undertaken a Legitimate Interest Assessment which sets out why we have a legitimate interest.

We have a specific purpose with a defined benefit	The consideration of matters which are brought to our attention in order that, amongst other things, we can identify any potential wrongdoing, inappropriate behaviour, or unlawful conduct, and put in place a safer way of working across the Church of England to manage risk.
The processing is necessary to achieve the defined benefit.	Unless we properly appreciate the detail of the matters to which are referred we cannot take steps to ensure that we have provided the most appropriate safeguarding
The purpose is balanced against, and does not override, the interests, rights and freedoms of data subjects.	There is the risk of significant and/or serious harm to others if unsuitable individuals are appointed. This risk is greatest where allegations are not properly addressed. This is balanced against, and does not override interests, rights and freedoms.

For a copy of the full Legitimate Interest Assessment, please contact our Data Protection Coordinator, whose contact details are set out at section 11 below.

- Legal obligation – we may need to process your information in order to comply with a legal obligation, such as under the Inquiries Act 2005 which may compel us to provide personal data for the purposes of a statutory inquiry, or a referral to the Disclosure and Barring Service under the Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act 2006, or an order of a court or tribunal.

Special categories & criminal information

- Substantial public interest (protecting the public against dishonesty etc.) – we may need to process your information where necessary for the protection of members of the public generally against seriously improper conduct, and from any failures in connection with, the Church of England’s activities, or for safeguarding purposes.
- This lawful basis is applied in the UK only, with reference to the GDPR Article 9(2)(g), and the Data Protection Act 2018 Schedule 2, paragraph 11. For those based outside the UK in other jurisdictions, they will have to ensure that their Member State law provides similar or equivalent use of 9(2)(g).
- Legal claims – we may need to process your information where there is a legal claim, or in connection with a judicial process.
- Archiving - we may keep your information for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes.

5. Who we collect from or share your information with:
