Opening Sentences

Declaration of Faith

1 Corinthians 2:1-5

And I, when I came to you, brothers, did not come proclaiming to you the testimony of God with lofty speech or wisdom. For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified. And I was with you in weakness and in fear and much trembling, and my speech and my message were not in plausible words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, so that your faith might not rest in the wisdom of men but in the power of God.

Declaration of Faith

Scripture Readings

Psalm 90:9-12

For all our days pass away under your wrath; we bring our years to an end like a sigh. The years of our life are seventy, or even by reason of strength eighty; yet their span is but toil and trouble; they are soon gone, and we fly away. Who considers the power of your anger, and your wrath according to the fear of you? So teach us to number our days that we may get a heart of wisdom.

Isaiah 2:5

O house of Jacob, come, let us walk in the light of the LORD.

Matthew 25:1-7

“Then the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. For when the foolish took their lamps, they took no oil with them, but the wise took flasks of oil with their lamps. As the bridegroom was delayed, they all became drowsy and slept. But at midnight there was a cry, ‘Here is the bridegroom! Come out to meet him.’ Then all those virgins rose and trimmed their lamps.

And I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and him who dishonors you I will curse, and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed."

2 Corinthians 11:26-29

On frequent journeys, in danger from rivers, danger from robbers, danger from my own people, danger from Gentiles, danger in the city, danger in the wilderness, danger at sea, danger from false brothers; in toil and hardship, through many a sleepless night, in hunger and thirst, often without food, in cold and exposure. And, apart from other things, there is the daily pressure on me of my anxiety for all the churches. Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is made to fall, and I am not indignant?

Today's Reading

Columba seems to have been no stranger to visits from angels, and was often aware of their comings and goings, especially to protect someone in danger or escort a departing soul heavenward, even when these occurrences were at a distance, such that Adamnan says later 'news' from far away would confirm to have happened at the exact time he had been aware of the event. He spoke of them seldom, but was often in the company of angels as he prayed.

Hard vict'ries inly won,
make strong the soul
to breathe the sov'reign peace
which angels share:
Unnumbered hosts
strengthen the loving soul that perseveres!

[R.M. Benson]

One day, on Iona, he commanded his brothers to allow him to go alone, unfollowed, to the Machair, the western plain. There on a little hill he was met by many angels who were clothed in white and flew at great speed. We know this because one disobedient monk spied on the meeting, and thereby cut it short!

The site of this story is still recognisable today on Iona:

One little hill top is not rocky,
but rounded, green, distinctive:
the hill where Columba spoke with holy Angels.

[Margaret Cropper]

Meditation

Achsah and Othniel

And so it was that Achsah kept urging Othniel her husband to ask from her father a field. She lighted from off her ass, and Caleb said to her, 'What is it that you want?' And she said to him, 'Give me a blessing, for you have given me this dark, desert land; now give me also springs of water. And her father gave her the upper and the nether springs.
