

Build effective structures

Listen well

Establish good governance

Communicate well

Model safe behaviours

Manage power

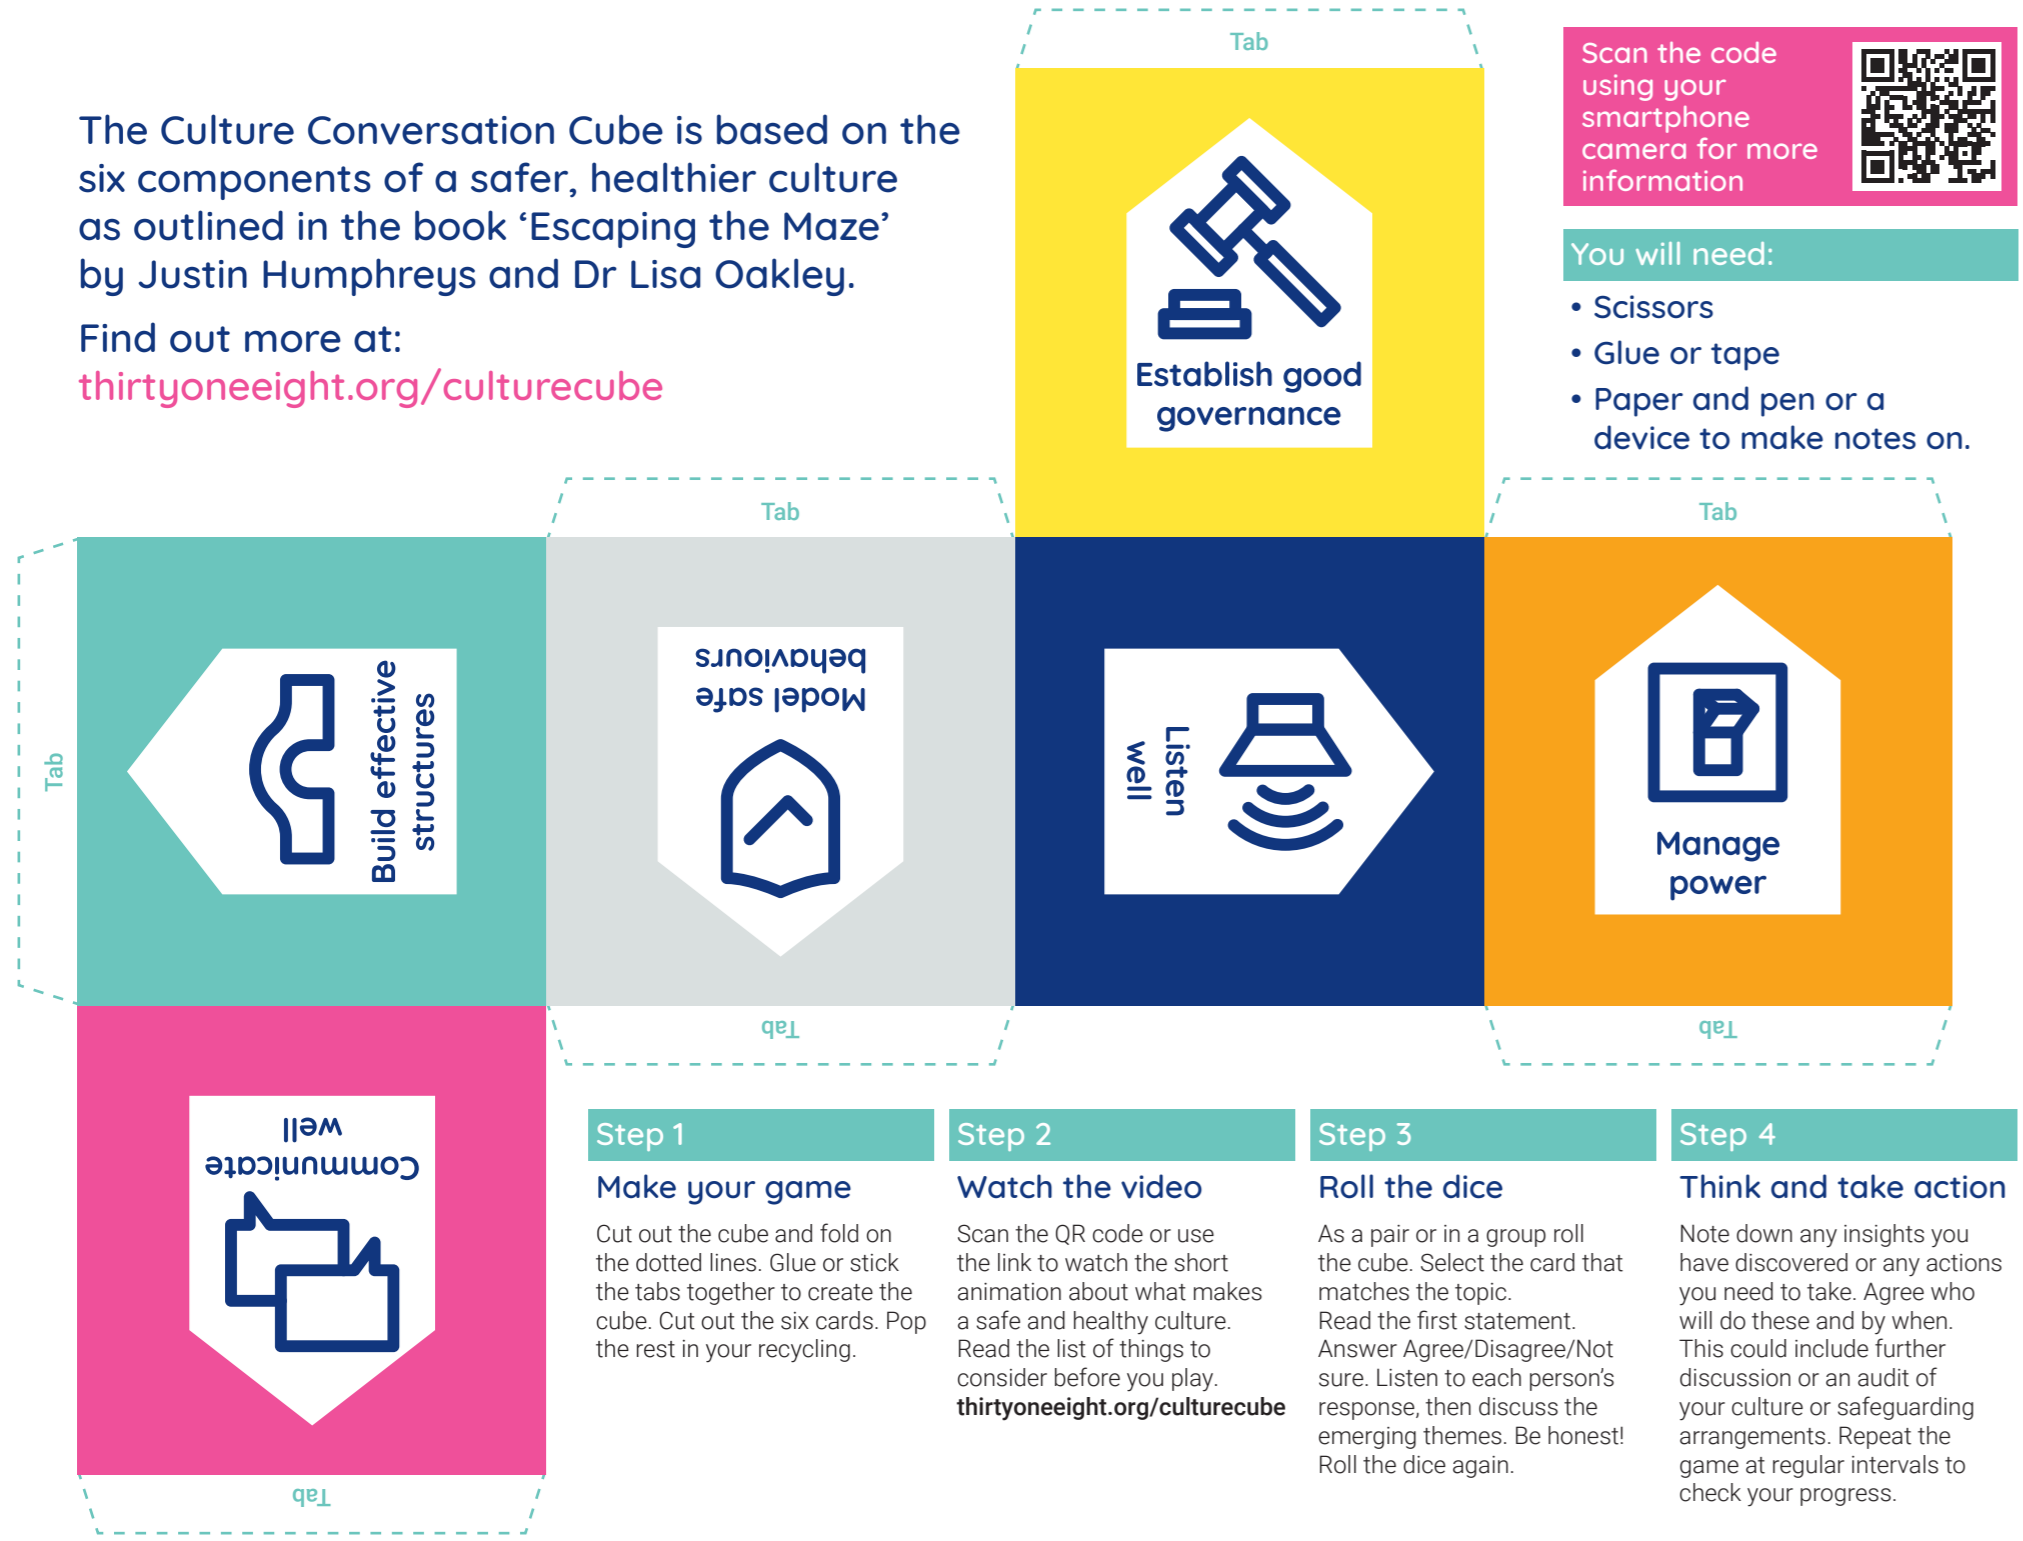

Culture Conversation Cube

How safe and healthy is your organisation's culture?
Get your people talking and find out.

The Culture Conversation Cube is based on the six components of a safer, healthier culture as outlined in the book 'Escaping the Maze' by Justin Humphreys and Dr Lisa Oakley.

Find out more at:
thirtyoneeight.org/culturecube

Scan the code using your smartphone camera for more information

You will need:

- Scissors
- Glue or tape
- Paper and pen or a device to make notes on.

Step 1

Make your game

Cut out the cube and fold on the dotted lines. Glue or stick the tabs together to create the cube. Cut out the six cards. Pop the rest in your recycling.

Step 2

Watch the video

Scan the QR code or use the link to watch the short animation about what makes a safe and healthy culture. Read the list of things to consider before you play. thirtyoneeight.org/culturecube

Step 3

Roll the dice

As a pair or in a group roll the cube. Select the card that matches the topic. Read the first statement. Answer Agree/Disagree/Not sure. Listen to each person's response, then discuss the emerging themes. Be honest! Roll the dice again.

Step 4

Think and take action

Note down any insights you have discovered or any actions you need to take. Agree who will do these and by when. This could include further discussion or an audit of your culture or safeguarding arrangements. Repeat the game at regular intervals to check your progress.

Establish good governance

Think about the way your organisation is controlled and governed.

Answer Agree / Disagree / Not sure – discuss your reasons for giving your answer.

1. Our procedures and the expectations on people are clear, consistent, and easy to understand.
2. Control within our organisation is not coercive, and the difference between demands and requests is clear
3. When dealing with complex situations our organisation willingly seeks impartial advice from outside.
4. The behaviours shown by our leaders and others within our organisation are not rigid, dogmatic, or controlling.
5. People are given genuine freedom to make choices for themselves about matters that affect their lives.

Manage power

Think about the formal and informal power structures within your organisation.

Answer Agree / Disagree / Not sure – discuss your reasons for giving your answer.

1. In our organisation decisions are made in a way that includes and welcomes the input of others.
2. Our leaders model humility and respect. They challenge any behaviours and attitudes which don't value and treat people equally.
3. In our organisation I see people displaying safe and healthy attitudes, values, and behaviours.
4. In our organisation I can see where power dynamics could create unhelpful or harmful imbalances and I feel able to talk about this openly.
5. I feel I could challenge the development of authoritarian or dictatorial power dynamics in our organisation's leadership.

Listen well

Think about the stories that are being told about your organisation.

Answer Agree / Disagree / Not sure – discuss your reasons for giving your answer.

1. Stories being told by people outside our organisation are mostly positive.
2. Stories being told by people inside our organisation are mostly positive.
3. I know what negative stories might be being told about our organisation.
4. Our organisation has a culture that welcomes feedback and encourages open discussion about these stories.
5. Our organisation has a culture that encourages us to be humble in the way we respond to issues and learn from them.

Model safe behaviours

Think about the everyday activities and behaviours that are accepted within your organisation.

Answer Agree / Disagree / Not sure – discuss your reasons for giving your answer.

1. Our organisation is committed to being transparent and clearly communicates what behaviours are acceptable and permissible.
2. Our organisation welcomes feedback on our practices and ways of working from people who are new.
3. Our organisation welcomes feedback on our practices and ways of working from people who are long-standing members.
4. Our routines and rituals are kept under review and reflect a safer, healthier culture.
5. Our routines and rituals take into account how they might affect people who may be vulnerable.

Build effective structures

Think about the written and unwritten structures, reporting lines and accountability within your organisation.

Answer Agree / Disagree / Not sure – discuss your reasons for giving your answer.

1. The structures in our organisation help to develop and maintain safer, healthier cultures and practices.
2. I am clear about what our organisation is trying to achieve with its structure and that leadership is exercised safely.
3. Our leadership structure has processes in place that encourage and invite challenge, scrutiny and accountability.
4. The way our organisation's structure works displays and develops safer, healthier culture.
5. Everyone with responsibility is offered an appropriate level of support e.g. through supervision, personal development, coaching/mentoring, etc.

Communicate well

Think about how your organisation communicates internally and externally.

Answer Agree / Disagree / Not sure – discuss your reasons for giving your answer.

1. Our organisation communicates messages that support us to develop and maintain a safer culture.
2. Our organisation clearly communicates what a safe place looks like so everybody understands what's expected of them and others.
3. A commitment to being a safer place is an important part of who we are as an organisation.
4. I am clear about where accountability lies and that it is used to encourage personal value and equality?
5. Our organisation actively welcomes people who are broken, wounded and vulnerable providing them with a safe place.