T.S.Eliot's poem 'The Wasteland' opens with the lines...

"April is the cruellest month, breeding Lilacs out of the dead land....."

I don't pretend to understand his poem (which goes on for ages with some very bizarre and disjointed imagery) but what I do know is that April is a rather lovely month. For a start it means spring has arrived, we start to get some colour on the trees, the nights get lighter, the temperature warmer and thoughts of warm days and evening in the garden start to flit through my mind. I hate the cold and this year it seems to have been very cold. I was told when I arrived in Redcar that the weather was usually cold for ten months of the year and worse the other two, but it is around April that I try my best to instil some optimism that perhaps this year we'll actually get a summer.

Perhaps 'hope' is a better word than optimism, optimism is often misplaced but hope with God is sure. It seems when we turn the news on nowadays hope is in short supply with prices always rising and other economic woes. But we've got some great things to look forward to here at St Peters over Holy Week and Easter and indeed more plans for May and beyond (watch out for coming new initiatives).

Before Easter, pupils from three local schools celebrated the story of Easter and as ever it was wonderful to have the church packed full of children and parents from the community. They capture well the passion of the cross, then the bright hope of Easter morning and the empty tomb.

It's a reminder that we are resurrection people! Easter People! as some say, looking forward to God's Kingdom. Because of Easter Day we have faith in a great and living hope and we share with Christ in his resurrection. Hebrews says in chapter 11, 'Now faith is confidence in what we hope for and assurance about what we do not see. So for me April isn't cruel, it isn't a time for backward glances of happier times but a time of hope and expectation for the future, and wondering what God might have in store for us in St Peter's, Redcar.

Every Blessing, Rev. Andy

ELEVEN REASONS WHY I STOPPED ATTENDING FOOTBALL MATCHES

- Every time I went, they asked me for money
- The people with whom I had to sit by didn't seem very friendly.
- The seats were too hard and not comfortable at all
- The manager of the home team never came to visit me
- The referee made a decision I didn't agree with
- Some games went into overtime, and I was late getting home
- The PA system played some songs that I had never heard before
- The games are scheduled when I want to do other things
- My parents took me to too many games when I was growing up
- Since I read a book on football, I feel that I know more than the coaches anyhow
- I don't want to take my children, because I want them to choose for themselves what sport they like best

Thank You Chris!

I'm 100% positive that I'm not alone in thanking Chris for his 20 years of Reader service at St Peters. I've only benefitted from 16 months of that 20 years but in that time there has been no one who has been as encouraging as Chris to me in those 16 months. Quiet words of encouragement and support have been an almost weekly occurrence, and getting to know him has been a real pleasure. It's amazing how much we have in common (we are both old Punk Rockers although you wouldn't know it).

I'd have loved Chris to carry on, we will all miss his insightful sermons, prayers, and leadership in other aspects, but he feels that now is the time to step back and I have fully supported him in that decision. We haven't lost Chris though, St Peter's is his church and his gentle presence will remain.

Chris, on behalf of all of us at St Peters, THANK YOU for your service for God here and I pray that God will bless you into whatever service He is now leading you.

Rev Andy

READER'S RAMBLING

Don't Be Fooled, It's April!

Unbelievable, Holy Week only a week away now, and then Easter, amazing!

Lent nearly over, coming round the last bend and we can see the finish line away in the distance, but we can see it.

How has it been for you?

Did you give something up?

Did you take something on?

I am sure you have spent a deal of time in prayer at church and at home.

You may not have been able to get to Church due to life getting in the way, so prayer at home is even more important, if it ever can be more important than it is.

Luckily, we have Compline on 'Zoom', where you can join with others on a Sunday evening via the internet. You can see and hear your brothers and sisters at prayer and be part of it yourself.

We need to feel that connection to be a church. It is what the church is after all. Not a building, no, that is only a place for God's people to meet, they are the church.

And living in Redcar we need that place, the Costa Del Sol it isn't.

But we do have to pay, I suppose, for living at the centre of the universe, oh well. Church is people. God's church, God's people.

But our building of St. Peter's, on the corner of Redcar Lane and Lord Street, is not the only place we meet, no, not at all.

Whether at home on our own, on holiday, on the zoom, on a walk, at work or whatever life throws at us to keep us away from meeting up. We can and do meet in prayer.

I spoke with someone before the start of our Lent Course this year who informed me they would not be able to attend the course due to, well, life.

But here is the wonderful thing—this person told me they would be praying for the groups as we met on a Tuesday and Thursday.

It is a wonderful thought to know you are held in somebody's prayers.

Positive thought has always been a good thing, and prayer is the best of it.

They are nationwide, international and worldwide.

It goes a bit further than the world-wide-web; those who have left for the next part of life, they hear too.

Never forget that we are a communion of saints, as much on this side of death as on the other. We are God's people. We profess one belief in Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

I find it incredible how the more I see and hear of the world we live in the more I see God's wonder woven throughout all of it. Not a surprise really as He did make it all.

Perhaps in our modern world we have lost our close connection, our place in God's creation. We listen too much to our own voices. And let's face it when we look round the world that God gave us as our home we are not really looking after it as we should.

Through prayer we are one with God, with each other and with the whole of creation, seen and unseen.

We are never alone, NEVER!

We should speak with our Father just as Jesus taught us. And listen, he might have a prayer for us to answer.

Wherever we are in the world we are getting close to Holy Week, the last week as we travel beside Jesus to the cross of Good Friday.

We will be with His disciples on Holy Saturday feeling with them that huge loss to the world. Not understanding any of it. But waking on Easter Day to such wonderful news, the BEST NEWS!

On the 26th of March I gave my last sermon at St. Peter's. And the congregation gave me several gifts showing their affection. But the thing that nearly made me cry was just how warm and loving you all are. It is something that I will never forget as long as I live.

What can I say, for once I am lost for words.

The Church of St. Peter's will always be in my prayers whether I am sitting with you or off on one of life's errands.

Take Care and God Bless my brothers and sisters in prayer and faith.

God Bless you and keep you, Chris

A big THANK YOU for your prayers and monetary support for the TEESSIDE HOSPICE MIDNIGHT WALK which raised, in total, over £93,000.

Our EMU walkers of Kristina, Julie, Andrea, Daphne, Anne and Tracy were joined by Rita, Caroline and Diane and the sponsorship we raised was just over £800.

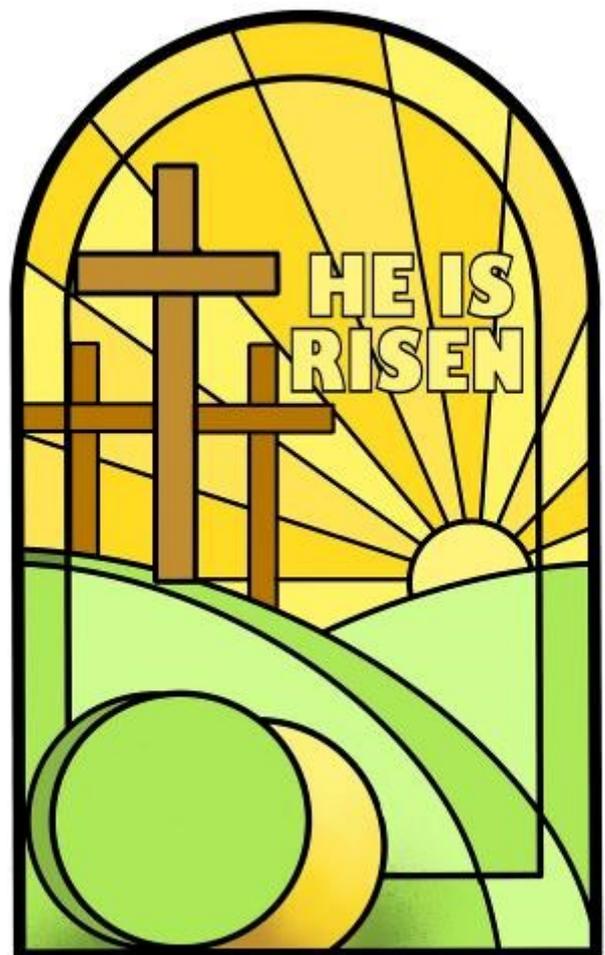

If we consider another adventure it will be something gentle and much less strenuous like a cool paddle in the sea!

If you recall at the AGM we were all given a Smartie tube to collect 20ps/coins as our Spring Appeal for MU. As our April date falls within Holy Week, and it is the Easter holidays for some, the consensus was we would try and fill them in time to return next month on 4th May. I look forward to seeing you. We will hold our Wave of Prayer to start and welcome as our Guest Speaker Margot Davidson-Wood.

Please ladies, if anyone is wishing to attend any of the special services during Holy Week but struggling to get there, do let any us know and we will try and help.

Wishing you all a happy and blessed Easter

God bless Anne x

LADIES' WEDNESDAY GROUP

Our Ladies Group was almost outnumbered when the New Day Singers came and gave us a visit at our last meeting. Their varied programme had us all humming the tunes. The acoustics of our Church certainly enhanced their performance.

April 19th      'Tibet'      Sue Barker

April Showers

Rain, Rain everything wet

It started last night and it hasn't stopped yet

I stand at the window watching it pour

the weatherman says we are in for some more

Bank Holiday Monday blank prospects in view

so much for the things I was going to do

The colourless sky makes everything grey

But just when I thought I'd give up on the day

a thin line of colour begins to appear above the horizon pale blue growing clear

And although the dripping rain hasn't yet ceased

with each watching moment

the light has increased

And now as I look across to the Park

a Rainbow produces a colourful arc

All is transformed in a magical way

as sunlight returns with a promise to stay

The Day which had started without any hope has suddenly given us limitless scope

Our brave winter gardeners have been working in the cemetery when the weather allows. They have been working on the long border in the middle section. At the moment, we are waiting for the grass to be cut. The first time after the winter is always the worst as it is so long and flies everywhere. The daffodils in the cemetery are beautiful ; we planted these many years ago.

The craft members have been involved in a workshop where we have been shown how to re use Christmas wreaths. The aim is to turn them into Easter/Spring wreaths for decoration. Oksana who ran the workshop has also made some Easter crosses decorated with attractive material, these helped with our Easter stalls.

The seat and the path are now laid in the Peter Rabbit Garden. However we still have a long way to go to finish the garden. The daffodils here and in the rest of the cemetery have made a lovely show.

We held a stall at the cemetery on Mother's Day. We had painted pebbles and Soo our Craft Leader had made some butterflies to be put at the grave side. We had 200 visitors to the cemetery in the 4 hours we were there. It was a good time to meet visitors and give them a newsletter to let them know about our work.

We have visited the Trefoil Guild who are retired senior guiders, Lily and Joyce asked us to give them a talk about our work. We enjoyed it as much as the group did as we were guides too. This event was held on International Women's Day, so we looked at the WW1 banner that we had developed for the centenary of the commencement of WW1 'Role of Women in Redcar.' We explored what the guides were involved in at this time which will help with their forthcoming centenary. We look forward to working with them this year.

Thanks to Friends and supporters for helping with our stalls this spring. We will be at St Hilda's Church table top sale on April 22nd 10.00am-2.00pm with a stall with an Easter theme. We are very much looking forward to coming back to St Peter's this year again, thanks to Sandra and the team for the coffee morning on April 29th 10.00am-12noon. We will be selling our famous bric a brac. We always get a warm welcome and lots of help with the stall. Hope to see you there.

Easter Prayer 2023

Thank you, Father, that you raised Jesus from the dead on that first Easter Day and that He is alive now and forever. Thank you that whoever believes in Him and turns away from selfish living and towards you can be forgiven through His name.

Thank you that Jesus is the same today as He was then and will always be.

Thank you for the Bible - your inspired, unchanging, and living Word to guide us.

Help us to hold fast to Your teaching and not to be led astray. Your Word is truth.

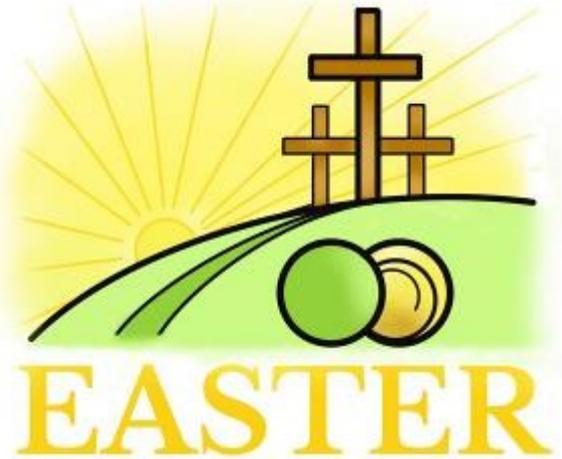

Fill us with Your Holy Spirit, Lord, that we might be Your faithful, fruitful

Resurrection People.

In the name of our living Lord, Jesus. Amen.

EAST REDCAR RESIDENTS ASSOCIATION

The next meetings of the above will be at 7.00pm on Thursday 6th April.

This month it will be held in the DOWNSTAIRS meeting room of St. Peter's Church, Redcar Lane, and will finish at 8.30pm or earlier.

The guest speaker will be Sally Bunce, of The British Diver Marine Life Rescue, to give us an update on the local shellfish dieback.

As usual there will be reports from Redcar local police officers, whereby we can also feed back any policing concerns we may have. There will also be the Parks Reports – a round up of what's currently happening in Redcar's parks – Zetland park, Green Lane, Holyhead park, Borough Road park, Redcar cemetery, the Lily Park and the paddling pool. Finally we will have Any Other Business where members can raise specific concerns or items of interest not covered by the agenda.

Why not come along and see for yourself? Just turn up on the night, give me a ring on 01642 482132 or e-mail bib\_ken@ntlworld.com for further information.

Out West...

A devout cowboy lost his Bible while he was mending fences out on the range. Three weeks later a cow walked up to him, carrying the Bible in its mouth. The cowboy couldn't believe his eyes. He took the book out of the cow's mouth and exclaimed, "It's a miracle!" "Well, hardly that," said the cow. "Your name was written inside the cover."

For MPs only...

At the Pearly Gates, St Peter greeted a minister and a Member of Parliament and gave them their room keys. "Vicar, here are the keys to one of our nicest single rooms. And for you, Mr MP, the keys to our finest penthouse suite." When the vicar protested that this was unfair, St Peter explained: "Look, ministers are a ten a penny up here, but this is the first politician we've ever seen."

Miscellaneous observations on daily life....

- In order to keep a true perspective of one's importance, everyone should have a dog to worship him and a cat to ignore him
- The biggest lie I tell myself is "I don't need to write that down, I'll remember it."
- Marathon runners with bad footwear suffer the agony of defeat
- Getting older is just one body part after another saying, 'Ha ha, you think that's bad? Watch this!'
- The good thing about becoming forgetful is that you can hide your own Easter eggs

With a donation of £25 you can remember a special occasion as well as contribute to the upkeep of St Peter's Church.

You can remember a loved one, celebrate a baptism,
a wedding or perhaps an anniversary.

A certificate will be issued to commemorate the occasion and the name will be recorded.
